Meeting Room & Judy’s Garden Use Policy

The Library Meeting Room and Judy’s Garden are used to support library programs and events. Rules and procedures for use are established by the Library Board of Trustees and are reviewed as needed.

- The Behavior Policy of the Raynham Public library is in effect during all meetings.
- Meetings should be scheduled to conclude 15 minutes prior to closing time. All activities must be confined to the enclosed space and/or gated outdoor space.
- Facilities must be left in the condition found including kitchen area (if utilized).
- All library programming and events are open to all, space is restricted to room capacity for everyone’s safety.
- The library accepts no responsibility for the personal safety of any person, either inside or outside a library building.
- The library is not responsible for damage, loss or theft or personal property.
- Children 12 years old or younger must be accompanied by a caregiver (16+) while using the outdoor space.
- No admission charges, solicitation or money-raising activities, except those to benefit the library, are allowed.
- Food may be served during programs/events taking place in the Meeting Room provided it is store bought or from a person or group that is ServSafe certified.

Approved by the Library Board of Trustees, April 2023